

Australians all let us rejoice
for we are all born free.
We are the dreaming of this land,
its spirit breathes in me.
Our home abounds with nature's gifts
of beauty rich and rare.
At every stage let history's page
treat all Australians fair.
With joyful voices let us sing
Australia is our home.

Beneath the radiant Southern Cross
we'll toil with hearts and hands
to leave our children's children
a whole and sacred land.
For those who've come across the seas
as friends we welcome you.
With courage let us all combine
to make our dreams come true.
With joyful voices let us sing
Australia is our home.

© 'The Australian people' - Version 12 – 18 April 2002

www.anthem.net.au